I usually ride shot-gun on the bandwagon and I really don't mind, I mean just look at my read shelf. I see all the 4 & 5 stars from friends & reviewers I follow for Crimson Bound and I am disappointed why I didn't like this more, as this is a 2.5 stars read for me. Crimson Bound didn't give me any feels whatsoever, unless meh is a feel.

Crimson Bound really embodies that, as Rachelle finds herself lost in the darkness as she strays from the forest path, pitted against a formidable villain she intended to destroy but instead has no choice but to be bound to. Rachelle, despite her intentions, in fact becomes the very monster she despised.
